

'From Covid-19 to pay rates: An exploration of the female producer today.'

'Are female film Producers given the same rights as male producers?'

Age:

Gender:

Are you a student:

Do you currently work in the film industry?

Have you previously worked in the film industry?

What is your role in the film industry? (Actor, producer, cinematographer, focus puller, art designer etc.)

What is your current job title?

(If completing this online via your computer, please put your answers in RED under each question)

Question 1:

In bullet points, can you list what a Producer does?

Question 2:

Without looking online, can you name any female film producers?

Question 3:

Without looking online, can you name any male film producers?

Question 4:

Have you ever worked on a film set with a female producer? If so, please explain your experience.

Question 5

Have you ever worked on a film set with a male producer? If so, please explain your experience.

Question 6

In your own opinion, do you think female producers would be given the same opportunities as men?
Please explain your answer

Question 7: Do you think there is much gender inequality in the film industry? Please explain your answer.

Question 8: Do you think female film producers are taken seriously throughout the pre-production/production and postproduction phase of the film process?

Question 9: If you had the choice to work with a female producer or a male producer, who would you rather work with? Please explain your answer.

Question 10: Do you think female producers are respected on set? And do you think they would be treated the same from a male dominated cast and/or crew?

—